St. Clement Church will be Easter Egg Central during Wilton Manors Leisure Services' Spring Festival Eggstravaganza on April 5

Wilton Manors, Florida (March 11, 2014) – Thousands of Easter eggs filled with goodies will be scattered across the fields at St. Clement Church – every single one of them ready to end up in the hands of hundreds of little boys and girls.

The City of Wilton Manors Leisure Services Department will be hosting its Annual Spring Festival Eggstravaganza Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 5 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. at St. Clement Church, 2975 N Andrews Avenue, Wilton Manors.

“The Eggstravaganza is a fun and colorful Spring event for children and their families to celebrate.” said Bridgette Pierce, Recreation Coordinator for the Leisure Services Department. “This will be an egg-cellent event for the whole family.”

The event is for newborns to children in the 5th grade and includes bounce houses, a concession stand, arts and crafts, live entertainment, face painting and pony rides.

Peter Cottontail will also hop on over and be available for pictures, so parents should have their smart phones and cameras ready if they want to capture some great moments of their little ones with the giant, furry and friendly rabbit.

The event is free. For more information, call 954-390-2130.

ABOUT THE CITY OF WILTON MANORS

The City of Wilton Manors was founded in 1925 by Edward John “Ned” Willingham, a land developer from Georgia. Today, the City of Wilton Manors offers all the benefits of a big city from shopping, to hip restaurants and bars, a burgeoning arts community and tons of community events, yet still maintains a cozy, community-feeling offering miles of natural waterways perfect for kayaking, paddle boarding and other outdoor activities.
