Library Card Holders Will Soon Be Able To Enjoy The Same Mystery Book At The Same Time

Wilton Manors, Florida (May 20, 2014) – From June 3rd to June 18th, every book lover with a Richard C. Sullivan Public Library card will be able to read the same mystery novel at the same time. As part of the Big Library Read Program, the library will offer A Pedigree to Die For, the first book Melanie Travis mystery series by Laurien Berenson.

Instead of driving or walking to the library to check-out the book and return it later, library patrons can visit <http://sefl-municipal.lib.overdrive.com> and read the book on their eReader, computer, tablet or smart phone. The program is free and there's no risk of late fees.

“Wilton Manors has always had a strong sense of community and I think knowing you’re reading the same book that your neighbors – and people across the country – are reading just adds to that sense,” said Rick Sterling, Director of the Richard C. Sullivan Library.

The Big Library Read is an international program that gives libraries and library patrons unlimited simultaneous access to a popular title during the program dates, creating a virtual, global book club.

The Richard C. Sullivan Public Library, an independent municipal library since 1957, is located at 500 Northeast 26th Street, Wilton Manors, Florida 33305. Click here for hours of operation and to learn more or call (954) 390-2195.
