Wilton Manors, Florida (June 23, 2014) – If classic cars and some of South Florida’s best ice cream sounds like an afternoon of fun, the Wilton Manors Island City Summer Escape is just for you!

On July 17, 2014 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., the Leisure Services Department will take a trip to the Fort Lauderdale Antique Car Museum and then to Jaxson’s Ice Cream Parlour & Restaurant in Dania.

The museum features 22 Packard automobiles from 1900 to the 1940s, several special collections of automobile memorabilia and a gallery dedicated to President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Jaxson’s is a South Florida favorite. The old-fashioned ice cream parlour features 34 flavors of ice cream, hot dogs, soups, salads, chili cheese fries, chicken salad and other tasty menu items.

The cost is $10 for transportation and a ticket to the museum. To reserve your spot RSVP and submit your payment to the Leisure Services Department (2020 Wilton Drive) by July 10, 2014. Participants must pay for their own lunch. Transportation leaves from and returns to Hagen Park.

On August 21 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Wilton Manors Leisure Services will take participants to Gumbo Limbo Nature Center in Boca Raton and lunch at any of a variety of restaurants on Deerfield Beach.

As a beacon for environmental education, research, and conservation, Gumbo Limbo’s 20 acres of protected barrier island provides refuge to many varieties of plants and animals - some rare or endangered.
