Wilton Manors Police Department Names

Darren J. Brodsky as Assistant Chief of Police and Abel Alberro as Code Compliance Supervisor

Wilton Manors, FL - (May 25, 2021) - The Wilton Manors Police Department (WMPD) is excited to announce they have named Darren Brodsky as Assistant Chief of Police and Abel Alberro as its new Code Compliance Supervisor.

“We are so grateful to have such experienced and talented individuals help lead our department,” said Chief of Police Gary Blocker. “Assistant Chief Brodsky and Supervisor Alberro will help us continue to enhance public safety and code compliance operations in our growing Island City.”

Assistant Chief Brodsky currently supervises the Wilton Manors Police Department’s operations division that consists of the road patrol division, community policing, traffic unit and special event management. With a career spanning more than two decades with the Plantation Police Department, Assistant Chief Brodsky joined the Wilton Manors Police Department in May of this year carrying a vast background of experience. His multiple assignments, ranks and positions have included Road Patrol Officer, Sergeant, Detective, School Resource Officer, Internal Affairs Sergeant, Street Crimes Sergeant, SWAT Operator and Commander, Lieutenant, Captain and Deputy Police Chief.

Assistant Chief Brodsky has a Bachelor’s Degree from the University of South Florida in Political Science and a Master’s Degree from Florida Atlantic University in Public Administration. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy, Class #264. Assistant Chief Brodsky is also an associate member of the Broward County Chiefs of Police Association and the Florida Police Chiefs Association.

The new Code Compliance Supervisor Abel Alberro was appointed in May of this year as well. Supervisor Alberro began a career in code compliance in 2007 with the City of Doral, after spending 25 years in the service-based industry where he ran a very prominent food truck catering business throughout Miami-Dade County. Previously he was a code compliance officer working for the City of West Park where he gained extensive knowledge in understanding the need to improve the “Quality of Life” for those he served and a fundamental foundation for the mission of the code compliance profession. Supervisor Alberro holds Level I and Level IV Florida Association of Code Enforcement certifications.

ABOUT THE CITY OF WILTON MANORS

Wilton Manors was laid out in 1925 by Edward John “Ned” Willingham, a land developer from Georgia, as an upscale residential community. It was recognized as a Village in 1947 and incorporated as a City in 1953. Today, the City of Wilton Manors offers all the benefits of a big city from shopping, to hip restaurants and bars, a burgeoning arts community and tons of community events, yet still maintains a cozy, community-feeling offering miles of natural waterways perfect for kayaking, paddle boarding and other outdoor activities. In 2018, Wilton Manors was named the “Second Gayest City” in the United States, celebrating a diverse population of approximately 12,000 residents.
